

PRIVACY POLICY

Introduction:

As part of our mission to help you Grow your Wealth, More Wealth Academy B.V. and its affiliates and tradenames, collect & process information.

This Privacy Policy is intended to help you better understand how we collect, use and store your personal information. By using any of More Wealth Academy B.V., you are agreeing to the terms of this Privacy Policy and, as applicable, our General Terms and Conditions.

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time in order to reflect, for example, changes to our privacy practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. If we make material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will give you notice of such changes by posting the revised policy on our Website, and where appropriate, by other means. By continuing to use this Website or the Support Service after these changes are posted, you agree to the revised policy.

Personal information we collect and process:

Depending on the service we provide to you, we may collect and process parts of this personal information:

- By using our services, you indicated that you are at least eighteen (18) years old and have the legal capacity to consent to this Privacy Policy.
- We collect your name, company name, company VAT-number, website, address, email address, birthday, phone number(s) and payment details (for example, your bank, credit card information).
- Other personal information that you actively provide (e.g. by creating a profile on our website, by email, phone or video call)
- We collect data about the More Wealth Academy's websites that you visit. We also collect data about how and when you access your account and the More Wealth Academy's platforms, including information about the device and browser you use, your network connection, your IP address, and information about how you browse through the More Wealth Academy interface.
- When we need to verify your identity (for example, if there are concerns around identity theft, or if you call into support and we need to authenticate your account), we may request that you provide us with government-issued identification information.
- We may also use personal information in other cases where you have given us your express permission.

Goal for which we collect and process:

We use this information to provide you with our Services; for example, to do provide access to our online trainings, provide consultancy & advise, to confirm your identity, contact you, ship a product to you, provide you with advertising and marketing, to give you access to and improve our Services; for example, to make our platform interface easier to use and to adjust our products and services to your preferences and invoice you.

We also use this information to make sure that we comply with legal requirements.

We use some of the personal information you provide us to conduct some level of automated decision-making -- for example, we use certain personal information to help us screen accounts for security, risk or fraud concerns and block suspicious access attempts e.g. based on black- or white-listed IP-addresses.

How long do we retain your personal information?

We will safely store & keep your personal information no longer then required.

If you terminate your relationship with us, we generally will continue to store archived copies of your personal information for legitimate business purposes and to comply with the law, except when we receive a valid erasure request.

We will continue to store anonymous or anonymized information, such as website visits, without identifiers, in order to improve our Services.

Sharing of information with 3rd parties:

More Wealth Academy works with a variety of third parties and service providers to help provide you with our Services and we may share personal information with them to support these efforts when required.

With companies that process (part) of your information we arrange a data processing agreement to ensure the same high level of Security and Confidentiality of your data.

With our personnel & contractors that may have (temporary) access to your information we arrange a strict Non Disclosure Agreement and strong access control measures to ensure the high level of Security and Confidentiality of your data.

We may also share your information in the following circumstances:

- to prevent, investigate, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of our General Terms and Conditions or any other agreement related to the Services, or as otherwise required by law.
- to help us conduct marketing and/or advertising campaigns.
- conform to legal requirements, or to respond to lawful court orders, subpoenas, warrants, or other requests by public authorities (including to meet national security or law enforcement requirements).

- Personal information may also be shared with a company that acquires our business, whether through merger, acquisition, bankruptcy, dissolution, reorganization, or other similar transaction or proceeding. If this happens, we will post a notice on our home page.
- We will always ask for your consent before sharing your personal information with third parties for purposes other than those described in the section “Goal for which we collect and process”
- More Wealth Academy is responsible for all onward transfers of personal information to third parties in accordance with the EU-GDPR, EU-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework, the Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Framework, and Canada’s Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA).

Cookies and similar tracking technologies:

What is a cookie? A cookie is a small amount of data, which may include a unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a website and stored on your device. We may assign a different cookie to each device that accesses our website.

We use cookies to recognize your device and provide you with a personalized experience on our websites, or otherwise through the Services. We also use cookies as part of the Services, for example to operate the shopping cart for our stores.

We may also use cookies to serve targeted ads from Google, Facebook, Bing, and other third-party vendors. Our third-party advertising partners use cookies to track your prior visits to our websites and elsewhere on the Internet in order to serve you targeted ads. For more information about targeted or behavioral advertising, please visit <https://www.networkadvertising.org/understanding-online-advertising>.

We may also use web beacons, software development kits, and other automated tracking methods on our websites, in communications with you, and in our products and services, to measure performance and engagement.

Opting out: You can opt out of targeted ads served via specific third party vendors by visiting the Digital Advertising Alliance’s Opt-Out page.
